Programs:

Book Discussion Group was held on March 23rd, with 5 people in attendance. In April, the book will be One Last Stop by Casey McQuiston.

Planned: Virtual Author Visit with Eileen Garvin, author of The Music of Bees, Tuesday March 29th at 7pm over Zoom.

Meetings: 3/4 PLSDAC, 3/11 Friends of Perry Public Library, 3/14 GOLD Retirement Transition call, 3/16 New Director Group, 3/17 Ingram iPage Training

Retirement data has been submitted for review and I am waiting to schedule a call with the transition coach to finalize everything.

Friends of the Library met to finalize the Annual mailing in time for National Library week.

I have spent a lot of time working on the Annual Update Documents due to the state. I have completed through 2019 and I am working to finalize 2020 by the end of this month. Then we will be caught up to the current year, due by the end of April.

Outreach: 3/2 Library Advocacy Day Meetings- Senator Gallivan & Assemblyman DiPietro, 2/3 Rotary, 3/18 Literacy Lunch @ CORE Learning, 3/23 RAP Bookhouse pick up

RAP took delivery of the finished book houses from the Art Club at the High School. They repainted 3 of the book houses with popular characters. RAP will hold a meeting on Wed. March 30 at 3:45 pm.

Building: 3/29-Spectrum Phone/Fax Installation, Rochester Colonial for replacing front swinging doors.

Technology: 3/1 Hoefler Communications Installation completed.
